

Participles

A. Find the right past participle and fill them in!

parked bruised cut burnt closed broken

- 1) There were a lots of emergencies today. The first one was a woman with a _____ foot. She had dropped boiling water on it.
- 2) The there was a child who had run out from behind a _____ car, and was hit by a van.
- 3) I also had to look after a man with a badly _____ arm - there was blood everywhere when he arrived.
- 4) This afternoon I saw an old man with a _____ leg. He had fallen, and of course old people's bones aren't so strong.
- 5) There was a woman with a _____ face, too. It looked terrible - it was black and blue.
- 6) She said she had walked into a _____ door. Her eyes should be checked.

B) Find the relative clauses and rewrite them with present participles

- 1) Back in the 1950s many Commonwealth people had passports that gave them the right to settle in Britain.
- 2) The immigrants who arrived in Britain in the 50s and 60s hoped to make a better life for themselves there.
- 3) They were able to find jobs in industries that needed workers at that time.
- 4) But in the 70s white people who were looking for jobs themselves weren't so happy about the immigrants.
- 5) Today almost half of the non-white people who live in Britain were born there.
- 6) There were laws that stop discrimination against these minority groups.
- 7) But non-whites can still point to statistics that prove they are in a worse position than whites.
- 8) It's very unusual to find non-whites who work in important positions - in the government, for example.
- 9) One thing is sure - children who leave school with a good education have a better chance of making it to the top.